

Jack Tierney

Born in Milton Keynes, UK in 1986.

Jack Tierney is a contemporary artist based in Newquay, Cornwall. His paintings and prints are influenced by the bold colours and brushstrokes of fauvist and post impressionist painters and the playful, naïve mark making of folk art.

His highly stylised works are recordings of the world around him, his interests and passions as well as popular culture, iconography and folklore.

His work appears in many private collections and he has exhibited both nationally and internationally.
